PIF JR. OUTSTAYS HODGE

TAKES THE LATONIA CHIEF RACE IN A LONG STRETCH DRIVE.

Cudgel Shows Remarkable Improvement in a Fast Race—Several Favorites Fail Their Admirers —Old Howdy Howdy Scores.

Cincinnati, O., October 18.—A rousing finish developed at Latonia this afternoon in the feature race, a handicap at one mile and three-sixteenths, contested by Hodge, Pif Jr. and Fair Mac. Pif Jr. won in the last stride from Hodge, the latter tiring under his heavy impost of 129 pounds in the final strides. During the early running, Hodge made the pace under restraint, with Pif Jr. and Fair Mac alternating as his closest followers. Fair Mac made several challenges and would have been more dangerous if better managed. Pif Jr. offered his final challenge just before rounding into the stretch. Then ensued a battle royal, for Hodge kept to his task and only in the last seventy yards did Pif Jr., manage to wear him down.

John W. Schorr's Cudgel suddenly recovered his best form and led home a good band of two-year-olds that started in the fifth race, for which Felicidad was most favored. In his last preceding start Cudgel could not raise a respectable gallop and followed the others for the entire way. This afternoon he raced close up and drew out in the stretch to win as his rider pleased. Sol Gilsey's showing in this race was much below his best form.

Threatening weather, accompanied by several light showers, was responsible for a slightly decreased attendance, but the betting was of fair volume and the racing spirited. The defeats of the most extensively backed contenders gave the public a setback.

Dahlia was the one selected by the public to win the opener, but she failed to get any part of the purse. Miladi Anne, coupled in the betting with Lucky Liz, because W. W. Darden has a contingent interest in her, won after a hard drive with the outsider, Lightfoot.

Bill Simmons was the choice for the second, but a poor sendoff through his rider's getting caught napping, was responsible for his failure. Brown Velvet, running to her best form and showing improvement, won in easy style.

Howdy Howdy furnished an upset in the third race. The old fellow was in a running mood this afternoon and led from the start. After the finish he was advanced $300 over his entered price of $400, but was bought in with an advance of $5 by the owner.

Geo. C. Love was sold by J. M. Henry, Jr., to R. P. Dickinson at an advance over the price Henry claimed him for.

Trainer W. B. Jennings was advised this afternoon that the recent Macomber acquisition, Boots, would arrive from Laurel tonight.

Trainer Perkins went before the stewards this afternoon to ascertain the status of Deliver.. Chief Brown and Jane Straith, he claiming half ownership in the latter as well as in the first named paid. He was told that the horses would not be permitted to start at this track and that if the owners decided to dispose of them by auction, the officials probably would not interpose any objections.

Owner J. C. Gallaher sought advice from the stewards whether he had a basis for protesting the bid on Howdy Howdy, because it is alleged that Walter H. Pearce furnished F. L. Moore with some of the money to make the bid. Gallaher was told that it was within the right of any one in good standing to bid on any of the winners.

The New Orleans situation is causing some of the owners here concern, but they are hopeful that ultimately the situation will clear up sufficiently to enable them to ship there shortly after the close of the racing here.

SANCTUM A CESAREWITCH WINNER.

London, England, October 18.—At Newmarket today the Cesarewitch Handicap at two miles and a quarter was won by W. Raphael's four-year-old chestnut colt Sanctum, by Santoi—La Croisette, 101 pounds, with J. Cooper's four-year-old bay filly Corn Sheaf, by Cornstalk—Lady Cringle, 108 pounds, second, and Sir A. Bailey's four-year-old brown filly Dark Opal, by Dark Ronald—Fire Clay, eighty-nine pounds, third. Nineteen horses ran and the winner had been the steadily-backed favorite for several weeks past.

HOLDING UP THE HANDS OF AUTHORITY.

Concerning the effort to make political capital out of the restrictions placed on English racing by the joint action of the authorities, the London Sporting Life says:

"Racing is not in danger, but the nation still is; and surely neither the government nor the Jockey Club can be condemned for doing what they consider best in the national interest."

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Margaret N's show tickets in race 29929 paid $5.60, not $9.60 as was published.

In order to compensate for the loss of racing days during the inclement weather of last week, announcement is made by the Reno Fair and Racing Association that the fall meeting will close on Saturday, October 21, instead of Tuesday, October 17, as originally scheduled.

JOCK SCOT RUNS A FAST RACE.

Defeats Deer Trap in Laurel's Feature Race—Benevolent an Easy Winner—Track Gossip.

Baltimore, Md., October 18.—A handicap for two-year-olds at three-quarters and an allowance race for three-year-olds and over at one mile and a sixteenth were provided as features by Secretary Joseph McLennan at Laurel this afternoon. The former furnished an interesting contest, in which G. A. Cochran's Jock Scot beat the top-weight Deer Trap by a scant half length. Jock Scot showed a good turn of speed all the way and, in the early running, raced the Butler entry, Lively, into defeat. The race was run in 1:12⅘, which marked a good performance, considering the cold and raw state of the weather.

Benevolent won cantering from his opponents in the fifth race. Fairbrother had him under a stout pull for the first half mile, and after taking an easy lead on the far turn, won pulling up. Polroma was second and Berrilldon third.

Gloaming's victory in the second race cost his new owner, Walter Shannon, $505 to retain him. He was bid up that amount by H. G. Bedwell.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Livingston were among the visitors at Laurel this afternoon. They came up from their farm at Rancocas, N. J., and will remain a few days. Mrs. Livingston has decided not to race any of her horses in the future. She will dispose of the produce of Rancocas Farm and her breeding establishment at Cobourg, Canada, at private sale in the future. She has at her place in New Jersey, brothers and sisters to several good racers.

The success of Mr. R. T. Wilson's home-bred two-year-olds this year has been highly encouraging to some of the gentlemen who have lately gone into breeding on their own account. Gifford A. Cochran has at his farm at Mount Kisco, ten handsome weanlings. They are all out of choicely bred mares. Mr. Cochran had but ten mares on his place and all of them foaled. Eight of the foals are colts. Four of them are by His Majesty, all colts, one by Tracery—Glass Jug, another by Ormondale—Veils, one by Swynford—Quair, a filly by Sweep—Henpeck, a colt by Ogden—Golden Drop and a filly by Celt—Adrianna. The dams of the His Majesty colts are Pretty Maiden, Connemara, Early Rose and The Marchioness. William Midgley looked them over a few days ago and pronounced them as good looking a band he has ever seen. The Cochran horses will again winter at Belmont Park and Midgley will start out next spring with a string of twenty-two.

Several horses changed hands this morning at private sale. Many of the horsemen here are adding new material to their stables for racing at the different winter meetings. G. R. Bryson secured Vermont from J. O. Talbott; L. J. Carey purchased Supernal from James Butler; B. T. McKeever purchased Ting-a-Ling from O. C. Biaocchi; John Lowe bought the promising two-year-old Whirling Dun.

J. W. Pangle and A. J. Joyner bought the filly Feminist from G. A. Cochran. The latter is intended for the stud. She is by Voter—Belle of Ashland.

There were a number of arrivals from different parts of the country. Edward R. Bradley got in from Kentucky and will remain several days. John J. McGraw is here on his annual visit. Gene Austin came down from Wisconsin; Dion Kerr came up from Virginia; A. L. Aste came over from New York, as did also Chief Lally of the Brooklyn fire department, and Capt. T. J. Huston. R. J. Mackenzie, whose horses are racing at Latonia, also arrived to enjoy a few days of the sport.

Courtship is ineligible to start in the third race tomorrow and will be withdrawn.

A notice was posted in the secretary's office warning trainers and owners from harboring jockey Paul Lowder, who has left the employ of James Rowe without the latter's permission.

F. Harlan and I. M. Hedrick filed a claim for Blue Cap yesterday, and in the drawing Hedrick secured the horse. He afterwards sold him back to Emil Herz.

Frank J. Ortell has purchased the well-bred mare Margaret Meise, by Star Shoot—Cherry Pit, from Thomas Francis.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. T. C., Chicago. It was a losing transaction.

M. F. P., London, Ont. The payments were correct as made.

E. K., Cincinnati, O. Regret was never beaten on a Kentucky track. The only time she was ever defeated was in the Saratoga Handicap at Saratoga, July 31, 1916.

J. D. J., Cincinnati, O. At the spring Latonia meeting of 1916, Ed Crump did not win at over a mile with 130 pounds up, but he did carry that weight and win at a mile in 1:38⅕ Wednesday, July 5.

J. M. V., Cincinnati, O. You overlook the fact that the layer has the same measure of rights as the backer. It is his right to have the matter carried to a conclusion. A parlay is a contract entered into that a certain named number of horses are to do certain named things and the transaction is not complete until there has been action in the case of each, unless it has terminated by one losing.

EMBROIDERY MAY NOT START IN THE CUP.

Lexington, Ky., October 18.—It is doubtful if Embroidery will be among the starters in the Latonia Cup race. J. C. Milam, her trainer, today advised A. B. Hancock, her owner, that the good filly has sustained an injury to one of her ankles, that may prevent her going to the post. He will decide tomorrow whether or not she is to remain in the barn.

J. C. Milam, who has thirty yearlings in training at the local track, thirteen of them being the property of Chairman Johnson N. Camden of the State Racing Commission, was here today to see them gallop.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer has a representative here to employ a man capable of looking after his thoroughbred mares at Binghampton, N. Y.

FAVORITE DAY AT KENILWORTH.

Windsor, Ont., October 18.—Backers of favorites had a good start at Kenilworth Park today, when the first three public choices scored. The track showed improvement, better time being made than on any previous day this week.

Four claims were put in for Leoneldia, the winner of the first race. The claimants were C. N. Freeman and P. M. Civill. In the drawing Mr. Civill was the lucky one and got the filly for $750.

There was a fair midweek attendance, close to 4,000 making the journey to the track. The weather was cold and overcoats and furs were comfortable.

F. J. Pons was an arrival from Laurel today.

BROWN APPROVES THE ORDINANCE.

H. D. Brown wired Daily Racing Form from New Orleans yesterday as follows: "City council submits satisfactory ordinance limiting racing to forty-five days this winter, from January 1 to Mardi Gras. I approve it since the council's previous ordinance guarantees fair play and an equal division of dates to both tracks."

KENILWORTH PARK FORM CHART.

Presiding Steward and Presiding Judge, Ed Cole. Starter, Frank McGinity. Racing Secretary, W. R. Norvell.

ENTRIES FOR VALUABLE JUMPING RACE.

Baltimore, Md., October 18.—Pimlico long has been noted for steeplechasing. For the coming autumn meeting—November 1 to 13—particular attention will be given to this branch of the sport, with the Manly Memorial Steeplechase on election day as the climax.

The Manly Memorial, named for the late William M. Manly, for many years president of the Maryland Jockey Club, is a handicap for four-year-olds and over, by subscription of $10 each, with $3,000 added, of which $1,000 to the second, $500 to the third and $250 to the fourth. Those not declared by September 15 were liable for $25 additional. Starters to pay $50. Entries closed Saturday, June 3. Weights will be announced by 5 p. m., Thursday, November 2, 1916. Distanec two miles and a half.

The entries are sixty-eight in number, more than have ever been named for a steeplechase in this country, and comprise the best jumpers in training from the most prominent stables.

They include J. Fred Adams' Star Band; Mrs. J. Fred Adams' Lazuli; George Brown, Jr.'s Warlock; Charles K. Harrison, Jr.'s El Boid; Ral Parr's Shannon River and Emerald Green; Harry Rites' Battery; George P. Sherman's Cynosure and Dorsey; M. Williams' Lucian (all owned in Maryland); Archibald Barklie's Blankenburg; F. Ambrose Clark's Lysander; Mrs. F. A. Clark's Hibler, Falmouth and Distance; W. L. Crosby's Runway; J. E. Davis' Vifir and White Metal; Deep Run Stable's Hugh Hunter; J. F. Flanagan, Jr.'s Butler Thompson; Lewis W. Garth's Rhomb and Stucco; R. L. Gerry's Footlights; H. Giddings' Heart of Oak; Glen Riddle Farms' Brentwood, Maybud II. and Stalybridge; J. C. Ewalt's Mohonk; Greentree Stable's Cherry Malotte, Syosset II., Al Reeves and Ben Wyvis; J. T. Gwathmey's Reliance, Aleppo, Belle of Bryn Mawr and Rupica; Thomas Hitchcock's Welsh King, Sorrento and Hustler; S. L. Josephthals's Baybrook and Meshach; Harry La Montague's Indiscret; Edward B. McLean's Fakir, Exton, Bonnie Laddie and Lough Foyle; W. R. Marten's Bachelor; Milltown Stable's Amans; Northwood Stable's Bill Dudley, Chivalry and Northwood; A. D. Parr's Sun King; H. L. Pratt's Razzano, Superhuman and Kenworthy; H. W. Sage's Pebeto, Raccoon, Brotherstone and Martian; Woods Stockton's Robert Oliver; G. R. Tompkins' Watertown; Edward M. Weld's Weldstrip; Dorsey M. Williams' Lucian; R. T. Wilson's Naushon; L. Wood's Compliment, Skibbereen, Sarsenet, Louvois and Expectation.

In order to give this race a fitting setting the Maryland Jockey Club has made some alterations in the course, putting the water jump in line with the first brush and changing the finish further back in the infield. This will afford a much better view of the sepctacular water jump from the grandstand and insure a straighter course.

Among the arrivals this week were the jumpers of L. Wood, in charge of trainer J. Howard Lewis, and those of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark, handled by Warren Freeman.

INCREASING AUSTRIAN RACE TAXES.

The newest Austrian tax, by which the government hopes to increase its annual income by something like two and a half million crowns ($500,000), is a new and additional levy on the betting at the various Austrian race tracks.

The new tax provides that in addition to the percentage of all totalistateur (pari mutuel) wagers already taken by the government, a special "win tax" shall be imposed on all those who pick horses that pay 30 crowns or more for 10 wagered.

Thus if the pari-mutuel pays 31 for 10, the government will take an extra 10 hellers from the winner; this percentage of tax rises until the government will collect 2½ crowns in such cases as the pari-mutuel pays 250 for 10, an occurrence by no means infrequent when the favorite horse is beaten by an outsider.

From the figures of the betting at the racetracks during the past season, and the prices which the hugely patronized pari-mutuel machines have paid the government estimates that it can increase its income by a round million crowns.

Another million and a half it expects to realize from a similar special tax on bets made with the bookmakers in the race track rings. The new tax will appreciably enhance an already profitable business for the government, for under the old system it collects 20 per cent. of all money wagered before the scale which the pari-mutuel is to pay is reckoned up.
